

SANHA

Client: Stolt Offshore

Location: Angola

Construction Site: Cadiz Yard - Spain

Completion Date: December 2003

Contract Type: Lump Sum

Total Weight: 5,700 tons

Project Description: The Sanha Condensate Project consists on the modernization of the Sanha and Bomboco Fields in Angola for the recovery of 105.000 BPD of oil, condensates, and LPG. The work includes the modernization of the existing facilities and the installation of new platforms, submarine lines and an FPSO for the production of LPG.

Scope of Work: Our SOW consisted on the construction engineering, procurement, fabrication, load-out and sea fastening of two jackets, one for the DPP Platform (Drilling Production Platform) with a total weight of 3,400 tons, and another for the WHP (Wellhead Platform) with a total weight of 2,300 tons.

